One of the Schneider descendants was named Peter Etril Snyder. Peter is remembered for his wonderful landscape artworks of many Canadian zones, including one of what he imagined the haus would look like at the time the Schneider's first lived there. Below is that outstanding image...

Step 1:

Artists, your task today is to find some inspiration from Peter Etril Snyders Gallery at the following link. Try and think about different colours, and the elements of design that he uses in his paintings. (shape, form, line, etc,)
